

Golf Courses

The Ocean Course: (843) 266-4670

Host of the 2012 PGA Championships, the Ocean Course offers panoramic views of the Atlantic Ocean from all 18 holes. Named “#1 Golf Course in South Carolina” by Golf Digest, this course as designed by Pete Dye with easterly and westerly wind challenges in mind.

Turtle Point: (843) 266-4050

One of Jack’s Nicklaus’ early designs and rated a near perfect 4 1/2 Stars in the 2006 Golf Digest “Best Places to Play” guidebook, Turtle Point narrow fairway corridors, small greens, strategically placed water hazards and plenty of out-of-bounds.

Osprey Point: (843) 266-4640

Osprey Point golf course is a masterpiece in playability and variety. Featuring four large, natural lakes, fingers of saltwater marsh, and dense maritime forests, the course offers a wide variety of memorable holes, each presenting its own unique challenges and beauty.

Oak Point: (843) 266-4100

Just steps from the Kiawah River and Haulover Creek, Oak Point offers undulating fairways, challenging greens and beautiful vistas. It’s no wonder this golf course recently received near-perfect 4 1/2 stars from the readers of Golf Digest magazine in their “Best Places to Play” poll.

Cougar Point: (843) 266-4020

One of the most dramatic vistas on Kiawah Island is the middle of Cougar Point’s front nine, just along the Kiawah River. This course features a great blend of scenic challenges and was recently rated the “Golf Course of The Year”, by the South Carolina Golf Course Association.
